Alamos Gold Announces Appointment of Vice President Exploration

Toronto, Ontario (September 18, 2018) – Alamos Gold Inc. (TSX:AGI; NYSE:AGI) ("Alamos" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Rockingham as its Vice President, Exploration.

Mr. Rockingham has more than 30 years of extensive exploration experience focused on precious and base metal deposits in various geological, geographic and cultural settings in North and South America. He most recently served as Vice President, Exploration at AuRico Metals where he played a key role in the exploration program, Environmental Assessment approval and Impact Benefit Agreements for the Kemess Underground project. Prior to that, Mr. Rockingham was Vice President of Exploration and Business Development with AuRico Gold and before that Northgate Minerals. In these roles, he was part of the team that identified, explored and developed the Young-Davidson mine into one of the largest underground gold reserves in Canada.

He holds a Master of Science degree in Geology from the University of Western Ontario and a Master of Business Administration degree (with distinction) from the Richard Ivey School of Business.
