

DFIN Delivers Digital Data Solutions to Navigate Expanding SPAC Market Opportunities

January 24, 2019

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- With the number of special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs) on the rise, Donnelley Financial Solutions (NYSE: DFIN), a leading provider of risk and compliance solutions, is helping deal stakeholders navigate that process.

In 2018, 46 SPAC IPOs raised over $10.7 billion, a 350% increase since 2016.¹ As the market has embraced SPACs as an alternative to traditional IPOs, DFIN and its best-in-class technology platform aim to simplify the complex SPAC life cycle, making it a seamless process from initial S-1 disclosure to proxy to 8-K to post-transaction filings.

"Through the fast-paced, constantly-changing market of SPACs, DFIN continues to serve as a trusted resource to clients and partners. The number of SPAC IPO transactions and their gross proceeds have exponentially increased recently, and it's widely expected that this upward trend will continue to increase in 2019," said Craig Clay, president, Global Capital Markets, DFIN. "We're here to guide investors in this critical juncture of navigating SPAC challenges."

DFIN's technology solutions, ActiveDisclosureSM and Venue[®], provide end-to end solutions for financial reporting and collaboration, virtual data room and secure file sharing, and data analytics along with risk, compliance and transaction management expertise.
