

M&A and Private Equity Dealmakers Gather in Chicago

October 12, 2017

Middle Market Private Equity and M&A Outlook Kicks off Today

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Today, Donnelley Financial Solutions (NYSE: DFIN), a leading global financial communications provider, hosts the Middle Market Private Equity and M&A Outlook in collaboration with Mergermarket, a leading source for merger and acquisition intelligence, at the Kimpton Hotel Allegro in Chicago.

This forum has attracted speakers who are industry leaders such as Apollo Investment Corporation's CFO, Baird Global Investment Banking's Director of Global Industrial Group, Houlihan Lokey's Financial Sponsors Group Managing Director, J.P. Morgan's Investment Banking Managing Director, Neal Gerber Eisenberg's head of Private Equity, Venture Capital and Growth Company practice, and more.

Delegates will meet Thursday afternoon to listen to dynamics at play in the middle market, relating to current and future mergers and acquisition deals. Discussions will center on opportunities in sectors such as software, industrial & chemical, and energy as well as mounting competition in the middle market brought forth by the participation of family offices.

"Events such as today's forum enable us to continue to provide our clients with the most relevant trends and insights into the constantly evolving deal marketplace," noted Craig Clay, Donnelley Financial Solutions President. "We are committed to providing innovative thought leadership addressing every aspect of the deal process for the dealmaking community."

With over 250 registered financial executives from across various practices and a speaker lineup of the who's who in dealmaking, this event will be one of Chicago's leading forums for M&A insight and networking. Register free or learn more by visiting the event website here.
