Donnelley Financial Solutions Unveils Digital Brand Identity, Reflecting Acceleration of Technology Solutions

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Donnelley Financial Solutions (NYSE: DFIN), a leading global risk and compliance company, announced today the business' evolution to a new, digital go-to-market brand – DFIN – and a new homepage: DFINSolutions.com. This marks the longtime financial solutions provider's vision and strategy into the fintech market and highlights the increasingly digital nature of its suite of global risk and compliance solutions.

"We are thrilled to usher in the next phase of our company with the launch of DFIN, continuing the momentum in driving digital solutions. Innovation is in our DNA, and we have never shied away from innovating throughout our company's history to deliver the best solutions and client service," said Daniel N. Leib, chief executive officer of DFIN. "In our industry, we've seen technology evolve and regulations shift. Through it all, our client promise has always been to provide the right solutions in moments that matter."

DFIN delivers a unique mix of solutions for every stage of clients' business and investment lifecycles. The company's powerful combination of intelligent data, insightful technology and leading industry expertise streamlines regulatory workflow processes, and gives current and future clients the reliable insights they need to succeed.

"We are proud to be a leading risk and compliance company, and the only one to offer end-to-end solutions to meet client needs," said Tom Juhase, chief operations officer at DFIN. "With our vast global resources and a commitment to the highest customer experience, we will continue to innovate on behalf of our clients and deliver best-in-class offerings."

Today, DFIN's growing portfolio includes:

- Venue: An award-winning, highly secure, customizable virtual data room platform that enables businesses to manage, track and share confidential information with stakeholders in real time, and to manage deals and business transactions from start to finish.
- ActiveDisclosure: A cloud-based platform that helps reporting, compliance and legal teams share information and create accurate disclosure documents for all stages of the business lifecycle.
- FundSuiteArc: An industry leading cloud-based compliance suite that enables fund groups to self-file and produce high-quality regulatory documents with the highest accuracy in the industry. It includes ArcFiling, ArcMarketing, ArcPro and ArcReporting.

Additionally, DFIN partners with clients to consult on complete IPO journeys, proxy statements and seamlessly executing M&A deals from start to finish.

"It's our business to anticipate regulatory shifts and uncover reliable insights for our clients. We are deploying technologies, such as machine learning and big data analytics, that unlock the unique potential of clients' risk and compliance data to deliver confidence," said Cynthia Clarke, chief technology officer of DFIN.
