Beacon Roofing Supply, Inc. Announces Acquisition

PEABODY, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 28, 2005--Beacon Roofing Supply, Inc. (Nasdaq: BECN) announced today the acquisition of Insulation Systems, Inc. ("ISI"), a distributor of commercial roofing and other complementary building products with locations in Roanoke and Virginia Beach, Va.

ISI is a successful and growing company and represents an excellent opportunity for Beacon to expand its commercial distribution business further into the attractive Virginia market. ISI was founded in 1987 and generated net sales of approximately $19 million for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Jack Smith, President of ISI, stated, "Our associates are excited about joining a growing and successful public company such as Beacon and we look forward to working with the Beacon associates to help grow their commercial roofing business."

Robert Buck, CEO of Beacon, stated, "Jack has built an outstanding company with an excellent leadership team. ISI will strengthen our commercial business in the southeastern region of the United States. They have hard-working employees who share our commitment to quality products and customer service."

About Beacon Roofing Supply Inc.:
