Oshkosh Corporation Releases Fiscal 2017 Sustainability Report

6/26/2018

OSHKOSH, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Oshkosh Corporation (NYSE:OSK) a leading designer and manufacturer of specialty vehicles and vehicle bodies, released its fifth annual Sustainability Report, demonstrating how the Company continues to make a difference in the communities where its team members live and work. The report also highlights how the Company has enhanced operations, processes and grown sustainability initiatives.

"In the Oshkosh Corporation family, sustainability continues to be a core focus area in our manufacturing operations, design processes, community engagement activities and strategic goals," said Wilson R. Jones, Oshkosh Corporation president and chief executive officer. "It's part of our Oshkosh Corporation culture that builds on the efforts of our 15,000 team members around the world."

Oshkosh Corporation views sustainability from a holistic perspective and continues to make strides toward sustainability excellence. Highlights include the following:

- Reducing waste to landfill by 64% since fiscal 2012
- Team members volunteering more than 7,400 hours in their communities including 2,100 hours in its first annual "Good to Give Back Week," initiated by its Access Equipment Segment
- Being named one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for the third consecutive year.

Oshkosh Corporation's fiscal 2017 achievements also resulted in being named an "Industry Mover" in RobecoSam's Sustainability Yearbook 2018. To learn more, and access the fiscal 2017 report, visit:
