

Drew Industries Announces Retirement of Edward "Rusty" Rose From Board of Directors

March 31, 2015

ELKHART, Ind., March 31, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Drew Industries Incorporated (NYSE: DW), a manufacturer of components for the recreational vehicle and adjacent industries, today announced the retirement of Edward "Rusty" W. Rose, III from the Company's Board of Directors.

Rose, 74, joined Drew's Board in 1984, serving as Chairman from 1984 until 2008. Additionally, Rose serves as President of Cardinal Investment Company, Inc., an investment firm. He brought extensive knowledge and acumen with respect to financial and investment matters, strategic planning and the stock markets, as well as significant experience from serving on the Boards of Directors for both public and private companies.

"We are deeply grateful to Rusty for his more than 30 years of service to Drew," said James Gero, Chairman of Drew's Board of Directors. "He helped guide the Company's success with his focus on long-term growth and an emphasis on operating the business responsibly and ethically. His dedication to Drew, its employees and its shareholders has been an invaluable asset to the Board and his influence will be greatly missed."
