

LCI Industries Announces Retirement of John B. Lowe, Jr. From Board of Directors

March 12, 2018

ELKHART, Ind., March 12, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- LCI Industries (NYSE: LCII), a supplier of components for the leading original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs") of recreational vehicles ("RVs") and adjacent industries, and the related aftermarkets of those industries, today announced the retirement of John "Jack" B. Lowe, Jr. from the Company's Board of Directors following the completion of his current term.

Lowe, 78, joined LCI's Board in 2005. In addition to his service with LCI, Lowe served as Chairman and CEO of TDIndustries, Inc., a national mechanical/electrical/plumbing construction and facility service company, and as director and Chairman of the Board of Zale Corporation, a publicly-owned specialty retailer of fine jewelry. Lowe also serves as a director of KDC Platform, LLC, a real estate development company. He brought extensive experience with respect to corporate management and leadership, management development, strategic planning, compensation and governance matters, social responsibility organizations, as well as significant experience from serving on the boards of directors for both public and private companies.

"We are sincerely grateful to Jack for his 13 years of service to LCI Industries," said Jim Gero, Chairman of LCI Industries' Board of Directors. "We will miss Jack on the Board as he contributed greatly toward the Company's growth during his tenure. His guidance on human resources and leadership skills were invaluable to the Company's success."
